

Level 4 The Little Prince < Answer Key >

Chapter 1

Preview Questions

1. He drew a boa constrictor digesting an elephant.
2. I would feel disappointed, upset, or even depressed.

Review Questions

1. The grown-ups advised him to lay aside his drawings and devote himself to his study.
2. For the narrator, “a sensible man” was just a boring grown-up, a person without imagination and true understanding of life.

Chapter 2

Preview Questions

1. The lack of drinking water. Desert heat will cause dehydration and death.
2. He probably will draw his Drawing Number One or Two to see if the person really understands him.

Review Questions

1. Something was broken in his engine.
2. Gentle but persistent.

Chapter 3

Preview Questions

1. No, he didn't. He only mentioned that he came from the sky as well.
2. Another planet which was very small.

Review Questions

1. Because there was no need for him to tie the sheep on his small planet.
2. Because he thought his sheep could use it as his house at night.

Chapter 4

Preview Questions

1. I would like to know about his/her hobbies, favorite books, movies, and things like these.
2. The house's location and the scenery around it.

Review Questions

1. Because he was in Turkish costume, which was considered not elegant enough by other people.
2. Because he tried to describe him with paintings so that he may not forget a friend.

Chapter 5

Preview Questions

1. Because he heard about the catastrophe of the baobabs. The baobab might split a small planet in pieces if one attends to it too late.
2. Yes. He thought his drawing of the baobabs was the most magnificent and impressive one.

Review Questions

1. The origins of habits, thoughts, beliefs and so on in one's life, good or bad.
2. The planet here may refer to one's inner heart.

Chapter 6

Preview Questions

1. He was sad for he missed his own planet.
2. Not much. His planet was really small.

Review Questions

1. Because a sunset may arouse a feeling of loss while a sunrise might symbolize hope and optimism.
2. I think it depends. Sometimes watching beautiful sunsets brings me calmness and joy. But when I am in a bad mood, sunsets reinforce my depression.

Chapter 7

Preview Questions

1. I think flowers are of more importance because they can bring comforts to people even when they are out of a job.
2. I don't agree with it. Plants develop thorns for many evolutionary purposes. Thorns appear to protect the plant against herbivores.

Review Questions

1. No, he didn't. He was busy trying to unscrew a bolt in his engine.
2. His matters of consequence include repairing his plane and leaving the desert.

Chapter 8

Preview Questions

1. Because he was worried about his flower.
2. Yes, I have. I water it every day and pluck out bad leaves. / No, I haven't. I do not have extra time to look after it.

Review Questions

1. He took the flower's words too seriously and thought that the flower lied sometimes.
2. By deeds instead of words.

Chapter 9

Preview Questions

1. He decided to leave his planet and to see the world.
2. One will usually pack up package and say goodbye to friends and relatives.

Review Questions

1. He thought the extinct volcano might come back to life one day.
2. The flower drove the little prince to go before her tears fell down.

Chapter 10

Preview Questions

1. The planets in his neighborhood.
2. He met a king seated upon a throne.

Review Questions

1. The king himself for he didn't give reasonable orders.
2. Because he couldn't understand what the king did and valued.

Chapter 11

Preview Questions

1. A conceited man.
2. I will be very happy because it shows that they have noticed the better side of my character.

Review Questions

1. The person who thinks all other people should admire him or her.
2. Because he got tired of the conceited man's game.

Chapter 12

Preview Questions

1. No, it isn't. Drinking damages one's brain ability which only makes things worse.
2. I guess they just want to numb themselves so that they can avoid sadness for a moment.

Review Questions

1. Because he thought the tippler needed help.
2. He drank to forget that he was ashamed of drinking.

Chapter 13

Preview Questions

1. To a businessman, the quantity of his wealth could be the most important thing.
2. They are part of the universe and belong to nobody.

Review Questions

1. Because no one claims the right before him.
2. To be of use to someone else or something else.

Chapter 14

Preview Questions

1. Yes. A lamplighter's work is meaningful because other people may need light when it is still dark.
2. Because he thought they were absurd and didn't do anything meaningful.

Review Questions

1. When the lamplighter lights the street lamp, he brings one more star, or one flower to life and when he puts out his lamp, he sends the star or the flower to sleep.
2. This planet was blest every day with 1,440 sunsets and the little prince liked the sunset so much.

Chapter 15

Preview Questions

1. A geographer studies the land, features, inhabitants, and phenomena of a region. They use the related information to help government or people.
2. Probably not if the flower is not of ecological or economic importance.

Review Questions

1. Rather bookish.
2. Things that will not exist forever and will disappear very soon.

Chapter 16

Preview Questions

1. He continued his journey and went to the planet Earth.
2. The size of the Earth.

Review Questions

1. By the rotation of the Earth and the change of daylight.
2. They would lose their jobs and seek other professions.

Chapter 17

Preview Questions

1. He expected to see many people.
2. A snake that promised to help him return to his planet.

Review Questions

1. People will feel lonely if they are not understood by others even if they are surrounded by thousands of men.
2. The snake's poison will kill the one he bites.

Chapter 18

Preview Questions

1. Because he landed in the desert.
2. No. He met one flower in the desert.

Review Questions

1. A flower with three petals and of no account at all.
2. Men had no roots and could be easily blown away by the wind.

Chapter 19

Preview Questions

1. Because he was all alone and felt lonely.
2. In some part of the desert, there might be rare species of plants and animals.

Review Questions

1. His echo.
2. He thought it was a queer planet, dry, pointed, harsh, and forbidding.

Chapter 20

Preview Questions

1. Yes, only one. He didn't know his flower was a rose.
2. Because he had thought he was rich but now he realized that all he owned was ordinary.

Review Questions

1. She would be annoyed and pretend to be dying in order to avoid being laughed at.
2. He thought his planet was no more a great one.

Chapter 21

Preview Questions

1. He met a fox.
2. They shall need each other and understand each other.

Review Questions

1. Yes. They tamed each other.
2. There will be responsibility in that relationship.

Chapter 22

Preview Questions

1. He changes the route of the train.
2. Not grown-ups. They were asleep in the train, or yawning. Only the children knew.

Review Questions

1. To look outside the train because they were curious.
2. It is hard for one to be satisfied with what he owns.

Chapter 23

Preview Questions

1. Of course not. Drinking water helps hydration and provides rest time.
2. No, I wouldn't. I don't like taking pills. /Yes, I would. Sometimes I may be too busy to drink water.

Review Questions

1. People who want to save time.
2. The little prince was easy, innocent and loved life itself.

Chapter 24

Preview Questions

1. Yes, he did. The little prince helped him.
2. The belief that somewhere it hides a well.

Review Questions

1. A legend about his house where he lived during his childhood.
2. The invisible thing could be the belief that makes one be loyal and persistent to his original aim.

Chapter 25

Preview Questions

1. They are busy for nothing if they don't really understand what they are looking for.
2. Not so good, but he tried.

Review Questions

1. Nearly a year.
2. We could be cheated by our eyes because the most important thing is invisible. We should know what we really look for first.

Chapter 26

Preview Questions

1. Yes, he did. He finally fixed his plane and was about to return to his home.
2. There will be sadness and hope.

Review Questions

1. He was bitten by the snake and returned to his own planet, because there was no trace of his body.
2. The stars remind him of the little prince and the friendship between them.

Chapter 27

Preview Questions

1. Yes, he returned to human world alive. But, he was very sad for he lost a friend.
2. The leather strap for the muzzle.

Review Questions

1. Whether the sheep of the little prince had eaten his flower.
2. The little prince was a little man who laughed, who had golden hair and who refused to answer any questions.